EXHIBIT "C" TO VOLUNTARY PETITION

1. Identify and briefly describe all real or personal property owned by or in possession of the debtor that, to the best of the debtor's knowledge, poses or is alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable harm to the public health or safety (attach additional sheets if necessary):

The Debtors own the following two sites which have been or may have been alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable harm to the public health or safety:

- Property and a manufacturing facility located in Anniston, Alabama
- Property (former disposal facility) located in Sauget, Illinois (Site R).

In addition, the Debtors own real property consisting of complex manufacturing facilities and the infrastructure required to provide for their continued business operations. This infrastructure includes the following systems:

- Chemical manufacture and storage,
- Wastewater treatment facilities, and
- Hazardous waste management areas.

In connection with their business operations, the Debtors manufacture and handle chemicals that constitute hazardous substances, store hazardous wastes on-site in limited quantities and operate wastewater treatment facilities. All of these activities are conducted subject to, and in material compliance with, applicable regulatory requirements. The Debtors do not expect the chapter 11 filings to result in any change in their ongoing compliance with respect to their operating activities.

2. With respect to each parcel of real property or item of personal property identified in question 1, describe nature and location of the dangerous condition, whether environmental or otherwise, that poses or is alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable harm to the public health or safety (attach additional sheets if necessary):

- Anniston Site – Alleged contamination of the site and surrounding areas from polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs).
- Sauget Site R – Alleged soil, sediment and groundwater contamination.
